

ROBERTO PLA & HIS LATIN ORCHESTRA

6 August
7.30pm
Canada Square Park
FREE

Formed in 1988, one of the UK's most popular Latin bands, Roberto Pla and his Latin Orchestra, exclusively perform Salsa, Guinba and Afro-Cuban rhythms at Canada Square Park, bringing forward South American culture and music to Canary Wharf.

SUMMER SCREEN

Until 27 August
Canada Square Park
FREE

The big screen in Canada Square Park is in place for much of August. It features live Formula 1 Grand Prix action from Turkey and Spain on 9 and 23 August, and the best of BBC entertainment, news and current affairs in-between times.

The Park Bar, also in Canada Square Park, offers one of Canary Wharf's best al fresco drinking spots, perfect for a slightly longer lunch break or an evening drink.

TWILIGHT DELIGHTS

Outdoor events at Canary Wharf are well attended and refreshments are available on a first come first served basis. Portable furniture, glass bottles or glasses are not permitted. All events are subject to availability.

THE PASADENA ROOF ORCHESTRA AND THE JIVING LINDY HOPPERS

20 August
7.30pm
Canada Square Park
FREE

A rare opportunity to experience the unique pairing of swing and hot music brought by the well known Pasadena Roof Orchestra, accompanied by The Jiving Lindy Hoppers, who perform The Lindy Hop in its original 1920s style. The fusion of the two is guaranteed to provide a thrilling performance.

THE ROYAL PHILHARMONIC CONCERT ORCHESTRA

27 August
7.30pm
Canada Square Park
FREE

If no time for some romance or dancing when you go for a special date, then consider a summer evening with a glass of wine at Canada Square Park listening to Rosini's William Tell Overture, Figo's Sinfonia and Dvorak's Symphonic Dance Suite brought by the Royal Philharmonic Concert Orchestra. Other operatic pieces include Tosca, The Bartered Bride, and Land of Hope and Glory.

CANARY WHARF FILM FESTIVAL

3-7 September
In and around Canary Wharf

Canary Wharf Film Festival was established in 2007 to bring creative and commercial minds together. Over four days the festival offers an exciting programme of local, national and international short films, highlighting Canary Wharf's growing reputation as a new creative hub.
